

The Hungry Children Fed

Marge, a poor widow spoke one morning to her five young children, 'My darlings, I can give you nothing to eat this morning. I have no bread or anything else to eat. Ask the dear Lord to help us. He is rich and mighty, and has said Himself, "Call upon me in the day of trouble, and I will deliver thee." '

Little Robyn, who was just seven years old, was very hungry and sad as she walked to school. As she passed by the open door of the church, she went in, and kneeling down, she prayed with a loud voice in what she thought was an empty church, 'Dear Father in Heaven, we children have nothing to eat. Our mother has no bread, no meal, not even a piece of fruit. O, help us. Give us and our dear mother something to eat. Thou art rich and mighty, and can easily help us.'

So prayed little Robyn trusting with her childlike simplicity, then she continued on to school. When she came home, she saw upon the table a loaves of bread, a dish of meal and a basket of fruits. 'Now, thanks to God,' she cried joyfully, 'He has heard my prayer. Mother, has an angel brought all these things through the window?'

'No, my little Robyn,' said Marge, her mother, 'but still God has heard your prayer. As you kneeled at the altar, a good lady was kneeling also in her place in the church. You could not see her, but she saw you and heard your prayer. She has sent us these things. She is the angel through whom God has helped us. Now, thank God, and never forget through your whole lives to "call upon God in your day of trouble."'

'Friends of Cathal' Cycle

The 'Friends of Cathal' cycle event, which is to take place on Sunday 26th August, has been organised by family and friends of Cathal McLaughlin as a way of remembering and celebrating all that he did in his community. The event itself encourages the communities of Drumragh, Omagh and surrounding communities in Tyrone and further afield, cyclists, people with an interest in a new pastime, and as the title suggests, 'Friends of Cathal' to take part and build our sense of community in memory of him. The event is suited to all ages and abilities and encourages cyclists to participate either by doing 30 mile or 60 mile route or a five-mile fun cycle/walk. All proceeds will be going to Muscular Dystrophy, a charity close to Cathal's heart, and the High Dependency Unit in Altnagelvin Hospital. Registration will be available on various dates (to be announced later) at a cost of £20 and all cyclists are asked to raise £40 in sponsorship. Each participant will then receive a unique cycle event jersey. Registration for the 5 mile fun cycle/walk is by donation. For further information about the event check out our Facebook page 'Friends of Cathal' or contact Brian Campbell on 0774 997 6531 .
